

Summer/Fall 2009

Dear Women's Ministry Director,

If its roots are deep enough, a tree can withstand just about any storm.

How about the women in your church and community? Can their faith withstand the tempest of these uncertain times?

Keep a Smile on Your Faith™ is a weekend retreat designed to refresh women with the richness of God's promises and empower them to develop faith that will anchor them through any storm. As seasoned speakers, we guide women to grasp the basics of faith for themselves. Check out our five high-impact sessions (described fully on the enclosed glossy sheet):

- 1) Lift Up Your Eyes: Why is faith so important to God?
- 2) Send Down Your Roots: How does mustard seed faith begin and grow?
- 3) Stand on the Truth: How do I reconcile feelings and faith?
- 4) Stay by the Stream: How do I stand fast when my faith feels dry?
- 5) Stretch Out Your Branches: How do I pass on a legacy of faith?

Rooted in Scripture and woven with humor, these sessions are transformational. Lecture and fill-in-the-blank handouts are banned! Instead, we plow the ground for participants to engage and apply what they just experienced. Seated in small groups, women use personal journals, simple aids and creative prompts to process this dynamic content for immediate application.

Now the big question: What does it cost? We know budgets are tight today, but that's precisely why a message on faith is needed most now. So we're doing the unthinkable:

By faith, we will waive our $3,000 speaking fee if you sign an engagement agreement before February 28, 2010.

In return, we ask for your best efforts at gathering women to attend, and to have our expenses covered and the opportunity to receive a love offering.* This may not only be the best budget news you've heard, but the retreat could also be the easiest you've ever hosted. Watch video clips and learn about the incredible assets we offer to event planners on our Web site — but don't delay in securing your desired weekend!
